DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-2, 5, 8-9, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Eichhorst et al. (7,093,884).

Eichhorst et al. disclose the claimed invention including a vehicle having an autobody with a movable roof and at least one movable cover part configured to be moved up by at least one drive element 50, wherein the drive element is arranged on a holding device (panel 42) mounted on the autobody and configured to support at least one control unit 46, a hydraulic pump 50, and connections of control lines (Figure 5). The holding device can be preinstalled outside of the body and inherently checked for function. The cover part is configured to be moved by a single drive element 50.

3. Claims 1, 3, 4, 7-8, 10, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Obendiek (2001/0040385).

Obendiek discloses the claimed invention including a convertible vehicle having an auto body with a movable roof and at least one movable cover part that covers a receiving area for the roof situated in the auto body when the at least one movable cover part is in a closed position and the movable roof is in an open position, and which can be moved up by at least one drive element (links) 18, 19, 24, 27, 28, characterized in that the drive element is arranged on a holding device 16 that can be mounted on the auto body, which is also a support for at least one control unit (links), a hydraulic pump 36, 38 and connections of control lines (Figure 5) leading to drive units for roof movement.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 6 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Obendiek '385 as applied above to claims 1 and 8 and in view of Graf (5,645,309).

Obendiek is silent on the specific shape of the holding device 16 and lacks the holding device including a passage opening through which the at least one drive element passes.

Graf teaches a holding device 11 in the form of a bracket including an opening (Figure 1) through which a drive element 24 passes.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have provided the holding device of Obendiek to include an opening as taught by Graf through which the drive element passes in order to provide a more stable and structurally sound holding device while minimizing the size constraints of the holding device, allowing for a more compact assembly, and while allowing the drive element to be expanded and extended to a full length.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. The indicated allowability of claims 4, 6, and 11-13 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Eichhorst et al. and Obendiek '385. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) are set forth above.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
